

The
Raleigh Sports Club

Dear Members, Guests, and Friends of Raleigh Sports Club:

It was such a treat having Les Robinson and Bobby Cremins as our guest speakers last week. Great stories! We also heard their feelings on NIL, the NCAA and status of Division 1 collegiate athletics.

This week we welcome Graham Boone. In August, Graham was named the new Executive Director of Heels4Life, the independent, not-for-profit organization that facilitates NIL opportunities specifically for UNC football student-athletes. Boone is a native North Carolinian, UNC grad and Morehead-Cain Scholar.

Boone served as an NBA player agent for nearly a decade and represented athletes including Tim Duncan, Ray Allen and many Tar Heels including Wayne Ellington, Marvin Williams, John Henson and others supporting over $320 million in negotiated player salaries.

We will certainly learn a lot more on the details of the current landscape for student athletes in the new NIL era.

Come join us this week, Wednesday, November 9, 2022 for good food, fun, and camaraderie.

About the Raleigh Sports Club:

Our meetings are held in Bradley Hall in Highland Methodist Church, 1901 Ridge Road at the intersection of Lake Boone Trail, just inside the Raleigh Beltline. Buffet lines open at 11:30 a.m., and the meeting is from Noon until 1:00 p.m. on Wednesdays. Meetings typically occur every week (except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's holiday) early September through late March. Please continue to check out the Raleigh Sports Club website (www.raleighsportsclub.org) for details on the 2022-23 meeting season. As part of our weekly program, we recognize a local Wake County high school student athlete! The student and coach speak briefly. This week we will honor Luke Jackson an outstanding student and football player from Athens Drive High School.

Membership is $90 for the 2022-23 season. You can register or renew at the check-in table...or by downloading and mailing to the address indicated on the form found on the RSC website.

Member attendance fee is $20 per meeting whether eating or not. Guest fee per meeting is a very affordable $25 whether eating or not!

Please feel free to attend as a member, guest, or perspective member. We look forward to seeing you.

Best Regards,

The Raleigh Sports Club Officers and Board of Directors
