

Dear Members, Guests, and Friends of Raleigh Sports Club:

The 2023 ACC Tournament is history. Duke won with the "Fab 4" freshmen and first year Coach Jon Scheyer. A great addition to the long history of the ACC tourney!

This week we are pleased to have as our speaker, long time RSC member, Lou Pucillo! Lou also has a great part in the history of the ACC Tournament. He was named to the First Team All Tourney team in 1958 and '59. He was the ACC Player of the year in 1959. Lou is an ACC legend and has been inducted into the Pennsylvania, North Carolina and NCSU Halls of Fame! At 5'-9" tall he was the shortest player ever recruited by Everette Case to NCSU. (there's a story there...) You've heard the story about Michael Jordan being cut from his JV team? Lou never made the starting lineup at his high school. (there's a story there). Lou had amicable relationships with both Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge and chauffeured Bones McKinney to many of his speaking engagements. (There's certainly great stories there too!)

Don't miss this weeks meeting, March 15, 2023 for good food, fun and great stories of from an ACC Legend; Lou Pucillo!

This week we will be our second and last week of our 50-50 raffle with our drawing held mid-meeting. Tickets are $5 each at the entrance. Increase your chances to win!

This will also be our second week for registering in person for our Annual Banquet to be held Wednesday evening April 5, 2023 at North Ridge Country Club. Tickets are $60.00 each for a night to remember with Dereck Whittenburg as our keynote speaker! You can also register by sending a check to RSC, P.O.
